

Job Posting: Special Education Teacher - Functional/Life Skills

Employment Type: Full-time, 184-day contract

Salary: Based on ACSC salary schedule

Job Summary:

The Anderson Community School Corporation's Office of Special Services is seeking a dedicated and skilled teacher to join our team as a Functional/Life Skills Teacher. This position will involve working with students who have academic and cognitive challenges that hinder their participation in a traditional special education classroom. The selected candidate will be responsible for creating and delivering a high-quality educational program that incorporates best practices and is tailored to meet the unique needs of these students. The teacher will collaborate with a dedicated team to foster a supportive learning environment where students can thrive academically and socially.

Key Responsibilities:

- Serve as teacher of record for students on caseload, which involves creating Individual Education Plans, scheduling and conducting annual case conferences, manifest conferences, and other necessary meetings within the accepted time frame
- Develop and execute lesson plans tailored to each student's grade level, with an emphasis on addressing their unique needs and Individual Education Plan (IEP) goals and objectives
- Provide grades for students in the classroom and enter the grades into the school-wide grading system within the timeline outlined by ACS
- Provide quarterly progress monitoring of goals to parent/guardian when report cards are distributed
- Plan for, supervise, and evaluate paraeducators in the classroom
- Work collaboratively with families, staff, and administrators to foster student success
- Work cooperatively with classroom teachers to modify regular curriculum as needed and assist special education students in regular classes with assignments, if applicable
- Plan and use appropriate instructional and learning strategies, activities, materials, and equipment that reflect understanding of the learning styles and needs of the students.

- Engage in continuous professional development and special education training
- Assist students with Activities of Daily Living

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree or higher in Special Education
- Valid Indiana Special Education Teaching License
- Strong communication and collaboration skills with families, staff, students, and administrators
