Middle School Math Teacher

Date Posted:
June 14, 2019

Date Available:
August 15, 2019

Location:
40340 - Ascension School

Description:
Responsible for instruction for all math/pre-algebra/algebra instruction for our middle school which includes 6th, 7th and 8th grade students. Also, provide activities to enhance the math program such as math club, math competitions and STEM learning.

Job Summary:

- High expectations for all students: Support a mastery-based learning environment and lead students to meet ambitious academic goals.
- Integrated curriculum development and delivery: Design and implement interdisciplinary long-term plans and daily lessons that spark student interest in STEM learning.
- Problem-based learning: Motivate learning through the context of a problems grounded in real world application.
- Differentiated instruction: Personalize student learning based on needs and mastery.
- Meaningful assessment: Craft opportunities for regular assessment and reflection using a range of methods. Use data from assessments to reach all learners’ needs.
- Content-area expert: Apply knowledge of best practices for integrated mathematics instruction to support curriculum development and delivery.
- Technology: Integrate technology into daily lessons using Chromebooks or iPads.
- Communication: Maintain communication with parents and guardians on a regular basis via newsletters and website postings.
- Collaboration with colleagues: Work with colleagues to develop and test innovative solutions.
- Partnerships: Connect students to individuals in academia, industry and the community with relevant expertise and experience. Build relationships with students and families.

Qualifications:

Bachelor’s degree in education or mathematics with teacher certification in middle school math. Teacher believes that STEM education is essential for preparing students for the world in which they live and work. Practicing Catholic (preferred).

Application Procedure:

Apply online Archdiocese of Chicago Office of Catholic Schools
Maryanne Polega ma.polega@ascensionoakpark.com