This position requires knowledge of State, Local, and Federal laws and regulations affecting performance of duties (e.g., school handbooks, American Library Association standards, copyright laws).

JOB PURPOSE AND RESPONSIBILITY:

In a school media center or library, incumbent is primarily responsible for formally instructing students and staff about library skills and assuring the development and management of media resources. Incumbent makes a substantial contribution to the education of students on the organization and use of a library or media center. Errors may result in an inability to access needed learning and instructional materials and equipment easily. Incumbent is responsible for overseeing the operations of the entire media center and in larger schools may supervise other media personnel. Errors may result in acquisition of inappropriate resources, outdated learning materials, lost or wasted resources, and an inability to locate materials or equipment within the media center. A significant number of tasks in this area involve applying commonly accepted and used procedures to organize and control materials and equipment. Incumbent must be able to think quickly and creatively to meet the varied needs of students and staff.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Maintain knowledge of curriculum and standards and their correlation to literacy, resources, and the research process. Seek resources within the community and beyond for curriculum support.
- Plan and deliver student-centered, differentiated library lessons using multiple media formats and technology tools.
- Ensure students and staff understand ethical use of information and multimedia including citing sources, avoiding plagiarism, seeking multiple perspectives, and assessing online resources for validity, accuracy, and timeliness. Librarian fosters digital citizenship awareness in the school.
- Reflect on library practices and services that results in setting professional goals and changing practices. Accept performance feedback. Participate regularly in campus and other professional development activities.
- Contributes to the school and to the district by participating in school events, serving on school/district committees, or participating in team/department meetings.
