

BAYFIELD SCHOOL DISTRICT JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: BMS Boys Assistant Basketball Coach

Work Year: Winter Sports October - December

Department: Athletics

Reports to: BMS Athletic Director

Salary: $2,160/season

OVERVIEW

The BMS Assistant Basketball Coach supports the BMS Head Coach to develop and maintain a high-quality boys basketball program that promotes excellence, discipline, and sportsmanship. The coach assists each participating student and head coach in achieving a higher level of skill, an enhanced appreciation for the values of teamwork, and an increased level of confidence. The assistant coach assists the head coach who organizes, coordinates, and promotes a comprehensive program of sport instruction designed around fundamentals, rules, strategies, and physical training in a safe environment. The coach must be professional, organized and dedicated.

Bayfield School District is located in the mountains of Southwest Colorado and is a short drive to Purgatory Resort, Wolf Creek Ski Area, and historic Durango. La Plata County is a world-class environment for outdoor enthusiasts with miles of trails for hiking and biking, wild rivers for rafting, breathtaking lakes for fishing and boating, and winter ski opportunities to complete 12-months of recreation. Moreover, the Bayfield School District has strong partnerships with Fort Lewis College and a Pueblo Community College campus on district property where students and community members share our zest for life-long learning.

Bayfield District is dedicated to attracting and to retaining high-quality educators and leaders. You will be warmly welcomed into our Bayfield Family, provided opportunities to learn and grow, and challenged to be your very best as you share our vision: Each Student, Each Day: Wolverine Way.
