

Attendance Improvement/Classroom Tutor

Denfeld High School

Job Description

This is a part time position that supports Denfeld's school improvement plan of increasing student attendance. This job takes place during the school day; supporting students, serving as a classroom tutor, coordinating focused classwork help between classroom teachers and students.

Job tasks/duties

- Classwork help with students one-on-one or small group, directed by and communicating progress with classroom teacher
- Supporting improved attendance rates in the school and with individual students by working with the Attendance Coordinator, school administration, and classroom teachers to enhance in class learning
- Tutor students individually or in small groups; monitoring progress, encouraging improved attendance and class participation, communicating with teachers

Specifics

- 8-12 hours per week, during school calendar days (not to exceed 1.0 FTE)
- Under CBA with Paraprofessional Unit, Pay Group A ($19.23-$21.81). Funding based on grant, secured through June 2027
- On site at Denfeld High School during the school day. Mon-Fri 8:50am-3:30pm. Specific hours to be arranged with the Attendance Coordinator based on your availability and classroom teacher's requests.