

Duluth Public Schools

Executive Director of Finance and Operations

The Duluth Public School's Finance and Operations Departments are a core function of keeping our schools running. They are responsible for managing Facilities, Human Resources, Transportation, Food Service and several other departments that keep the District running.

The Position

The Executive Director of Finance and Operations is a key member of the Duluth School District's executive team. This pivotal role exists to provide strategic leadership and comprehensive oversight for establishing financial policies and procedures. The Executive Director of Finance and Operations is responsible for oversight of several large departments within the District including Human Resources, Facilities and Transportation, Food and Nutritional Services and Enrollment. A function of this role is to provide leadership and support to higher level Directors so they can best support their departments. This role requires professional communication with District partners and community leaders and the use of independent judgment and the ability to build strong relationships, collaborate with others and communicate effectively. The Executive Director of Finance and Operations is responsible for strategic planning of long and short-range goals, including implementing and evaluating district staff plans, recruitment and retention of a high-quality workforce, the management of departmental resources while maintaining a competitive and equitable classification and compensation structures. The Executive Director of Finance and Operations acts as an advisor to the Superintendent and works to create a thriving workforce culture focused on continuous improvements. This role also requires partnering with the Assistant Superintendent and Superintendent in budget development including forecasting district needs and priorities. This role is responsible for all financial matters for the District including working with auditors, speaking to the School Board on these matters and coordinating risk management to protect District assets.

This is an independent contract position that reports directly to the Superintendent. The Executive Director of Finance and Operations manages leadership in several departments including Facilities, Transportation, Food Service, Human Resources, Enrollment, Business Services and Purchasing.

The Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidate will have demonstrated experience in strategic and financial planning, restructuring debt, risk management, labor relations, administrative systems and compliance with legislation. The Executive Director of Finance and Operations will be familiar and comfortable with short and long term financial planning, labor relations, supervision and management of staff, financial analysis, and investing surplus to maximize District assets. Strong written and verbal communication skills, the ability to plan and manage short and long term goals and collaboration between different departments is needed for a position of this stature. Experience in working across multi-functional teams in a fast-paced work environment is a must! As a leader and mentor who is dedicated to providing excellent financial planning services for the District, the Executive Director of Finance and Operations will be a thoughtful advisor who anticipates issues and looks for innovative ways to solve systemic problems and who sees their role as being an important part of the District's leadership team. The new Executive Director of Finance and Operations will possess a balance of assertiveness and diplomacy, be a good listener, fair-minded, and be willing to discuss various matters candidly. This position requires a person capable of operating with significant independence and initiative, while being adept at innovative problem-solving. This is a position of public trust and transparency; personal integrity and ethics must be beyond reproach.

Who we are.

Our Community

Duluth, or Onigamiising in Ojibwe, is the seat of St. Louis County, the largest city in the northern two-thirds of Minnesota, and the fourth largest city in the state. It is located on the western tip of Lake Superior and its city limits encompass 67 square miles of land and nearly 50 square miles of water. It is part of the Twin Ports metropolitan statistical area which includes all of Wisconsin's Douglas County, and Minnesota's Carlton, Lake, and Saint Louis counties which boasts a population of 291,638, ranked as the 170th largest metropolitan area in the United States.

The City of Duluth is a major port city in Minnesota and serves as the county seat of Saint Louis County. Duluth has a population of 86,293 and is the fourth largest city in Minnesota. Situated on a hillside along Lake Superior's north shore, Duluth is 23 miles long and eight miles wide at its broadest point. It is considered a regional center for Northern Minnesota, Northwest Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, and Lower Ontario. The City is built into a steep rocky hillside, with an elevation change of approximately 900 feet, and temperatures and weather that can vary greatly from season to season and even day to day, due to the proximity of Lake Superior (Kitchi Gammi).

After years of building economic diversity, Duluth is growing into a robust regional economic, medical, aviation, higher education, outdoor recreation and arts center. Duluth has long been recognized as an innovative region that is supported by a wide variety of services and industries, including the largest, farthest inland freshwater port, the Port of Duluth-Superior.

With 100,000 acres of green space alongside the shores of Lake Superior, Duluth embraces its four seasons with pride. Our waterfront location makes Duluth a premier destination for recreation and entertainment, with miles of water, beach and trails for water skiing, boating, fishing, and other adventure activities. Duluth has been voted Outside magazine's best outdoors town in America, and was ranked in the 2021 top 10 Remote-Ready Cities in the US by Livability, providing 129 municipal parks with a total of 6,834 acres of city parkland. The City provides 150 miles of unpaved hiking trails, 85 miles of bike-optimized, multi-use trails, and 30 miles of paved, accessible trails. The City is home to 2 ski hills, 16 designated trout streams and Lake Superior, the world's largest freshwater lake by surface area. Outdoor tourism is a major part of the city's economy with approximately 6.7 million people visiting Duluth annually.

The city also boasts a vibrant arts culture, home to art museums, theater, and numerous festivals throughout the year. It is the home of two colleges and a university whose local sports teams include nationally ranked and championship teams.
