

HARRISBURG SCHOOL DISTRICT
Special Education Department
1301 Sycamore Street
Harrisburg, PA 17104
(717) 703-4080 - FAX (717) 703-4028

SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

THE HARRISBURG SCHOOL DISTRICT IS LOOKING FOR SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY INTERNS FOR THE 2024-2025 SCHOOL YEAR.

APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED UNTIL February 28, 2024.

$15,000 STIPEND (2 positions available)

potential for additional funding via PA HELPS GRANT*

SUPERVISION SPECIALIZING IN THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

- ✓ Crisis Intervention
- ✓ Early Intervention
- ✓ Federal (IDEA) and State Regulations
- ✓ Procedures for Evaluation and Determination of Eligibility for Special Education Disability Categories
- ✓ Consultative and Collaborative Services
- ✓ Student Support Teams
- ✓ Completion of Non-discriminatory Evaluations for Students of Minoritized Backgrounds
- ✓ Multi-tiered System of Supports TO INCLUDE:
 - Data Analysis of Instruction and Intervention
 - Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports
 - Equitable and Culturally Responsive Practices

The Harrisburg School District is an urban district with a diverse population of students. Special education programs in the district offer a variety of classroom placements including: Multiple Disabilities, Emotional Support, Life Skills, Autism, and Learning Disabilities. Interns are offered opportunities to work with students qualifying under all IDEA disability categories.

If interested, please email a letter of interest along with resume, sample report, and 3 current letters of recommendation to-

Krystal Palmer, Director of Special Education and Tomeka Farrar, Lead School Psychologist
at kpalmer@hbgsd.us and tfarrar@hbgsd.us