

English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) TA Job Description

The ESOL TA provides supplemental instructional supports for English Learner (EL) students with direction from EL Specialist and classroom teachers. The responsibilities for this position will require the TA to work with students with a wide range of English language proficiency from “Newcomers” to students transitioning from English language supports.

Qualifications

- College degree preferred
- Teaching certification preferred
- Experience with English Language Learners preferred

General Responsibilities

The ESOL TA Will:

- 1.) Provide support within the regular classroom including, but not limited to:
 - Assisting teachers with providing needed accommodations and/or modifications including those needed for standardized assessments
 - Supporting individual student needs to ensure language and content knowledge acquisition
 - Increasing student independence with navigating schedule, building, and social situations.
 - Collect data to help monitor student progress toward goals for language, academic, and social development
- 2.) Support students within the EL classroom including, but not limited to:
 - Help EL specialist manage student schedules and assist with student transitions
 - Monitor and support student work and learning while EL Specialist works with individual or small groups of students.
 - Assist with screening and annual ACCESS testing as needed
- 3.) Will attend professional development and department meetings when applicable.
- 4.) Other duties as assigned