

Lee H. Kellogg School

K-8 PRINCIPAL

WE ARE HIRING

The Canaan Board of Education seeks a community-centered, educational leader who embodies enthusiasm, compassion, and a deep commitment to student success.

A COMMUNITY SCHOOL CELEBRATING EACH STUDENT

Located in rural northwest Connecticut, Lee H. Kellogg School in the Town of Canaan (Falls Village) serves as the heart of the community.

- 71 students, K-8
- Deep community pride – Shared traditions, events, and values strengthen bonds between school and town.
- Student growth over time – Chance to see children progress through multiple grades in a small setting.
- Meaningful relationships with families – Strong home-school partnerships to support students.
- Sense of belonging – Staff, students, and community members feel invested in one another's success.

If you're passionate about cultivating strong relationships, inspiring young learners, and guiding a dedicated staff, this is the place for you.
