Position Summary:

The Freshman Volleyball Head Coach is responsible for leading and managing the Freshman Volleyball team. This includes planning and conducting practices, teaching fundamental skills, promoting teamwork and sportsmanship, and guiding the team during competitions. The coach will serve as a positive role model and help foster student-athlete development both on and off the court.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Plan and lead daily practices focused on skill development, strategy, and team cohesion
2. Instruct athletes in the rules, techniques, and safety of volleyball
3. Organize and coach all games and scrimmages
4. Communicate effectively with players, parents, and school staff
5. Promote a positive and inclusive team culture
6. Ensure the proper use and care of equipment and facilities
7. Follow all school, league, and state athletic guidelines and policies
