All successful job applicants must submit to both a DCF central registry check and a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose, in this case employment by a Board of Education, within 10 days of an offer of temporary employment. The applicant must arrange to be fingerprinted by the Tolland Police Department or the Police Department/Resident Trooper/State Police Troop for the town in which the successful applicant resides. Failure of the applicant to have his/her fingerprints taken within such ten-day period without good cause, will be grounds for the withdrawal of the offer of employment. A fee is charged by the Treasurer - State Connecticut for both fingerprints and the process of checking those prints. Your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI. If you have a criminal history record, we will provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information provided. We are advising you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulation, Section 16.34. If you have a criminal history record, you will be afforded a reasonable amount of time (90 days) to correct or complete the record before action is taken based on that information. Results of the criminal history record check will be used for authorized purposes and we will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, rule, procedure, or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council. You have the right to receive the results of the criminal history check for review or possible challenge. If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information or the FBI at FBI CJIS Division-Summary Request. A copy of the “Noncriminal Justice Applicant’s Privacy Rights” will be provided to a successful candidate to keep upon offer of temporary employment.
